

Come and experience the undiscovered beauty of Abruzzo, Italy's best kept secret.

Where hilltop villages and mountains
look down over the beautiful Adriatic coastline.

Abruzzo is situated on the Adriatic Sea and surrounded by the majestic Majella mountains.

Fruttanoce Villas is luckily enough to be off the beaten track, surrounded by vineyards and olive groves.

We are 2 minutes drive to the nearest beach and 5 minutes away from the popular sandy beach of Le Morge which is ideal for small children as it has a shallow and safe entry into the waters. This beach also has several cafes and restaurants.

Our nearest major towns are Vasto and Lanciano which are renowned for their history, shopping and culture.

We have a local supermarket which is only a 5 minute drive away, as is the train station which is good for days out without the hassle of driving, although it is recommended that you hire a car for your holiday as public transport is sporadic in this area.

Nearest city and airport
is Pescara
(40 minutes drive away).

Other airports are Rome, Ancona and Bari which are all
2 and half hours away.

Abruzzo is blessed with beautiful sandy beaches, ideal for families with crystal clear, warm, shallow waters surrounded by idyllic Italian scenery.

Watch local farmers tend their olive groves and vineyards and relax at the end of your day with a cool drink while watching the sunset over the mountains from your private terrace.

At Fruttanoce villas our aim is for you to have a comfortable and stress-free holiday away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

Whether it is sitting round the pool looking at the view or having a barbecue at the end of the day.
